

ANI SHOMEIR ET HA'ADAMAH

Words: Robin Hoffman's Sixth Grade class at the Morasha Day School, Rancho Santa Margarita, CA

Music: Verses based on the Brazilian folk song, Luar Do Sertao. (Moon Of The Backlands)

Refrain by Dan Nichols

© 2007 Dan Nichols

Capo 3: Play in D

I hear a voice calling me to repair the world	D	G	A	D
Now's the time to take first steps, there's no turning back	D	G	A	D
The mountain that's in front of me is my purpose, my being, me	D	G	A	D
This voice is God calling me to care for the world	D	G	A	D

Ani shomeir et ha'adamah	G	D
Ani shomeir et ha'adamah	G	A	D

My life is filled with challenges I'll have to overcome	D	G	A	D
The journey's rough, I won't give up until the climb is done	D	G	A	D
I struggle in the shadows and see the light ahead	D	G	A	D
I pray God, renew my hope, and realize my strength	D	G	A	D

Ani shomeir et ha'adamah	G	D
Ani shomeir et ha'adamah	G	A	D

I stand on this mountain and look back at my life	D	G	A	D
And finally understand why I am here	D	G	A	D
I see a greener planet that I helped to repair	D	G	A	D
I hear a voice calling me to keep singing this song	D	G	A	D

Ani shomeir et ha'adamah	G	D
Ani shomeir et ha'adamah	G	A	D
Ani shomeir et ha'adamah	G	D
Ani shomeir et ha'adamah	G	A	D

Ani shomeir et ha'adamah: I am a guardian of the earth